

International Souris River Study Board

A Study to review operating rules, improve our understanding of flooding, and recommend potential measures to reduce risks of flooding and other water uses in the Souris River basin.

Our draft Work Plan

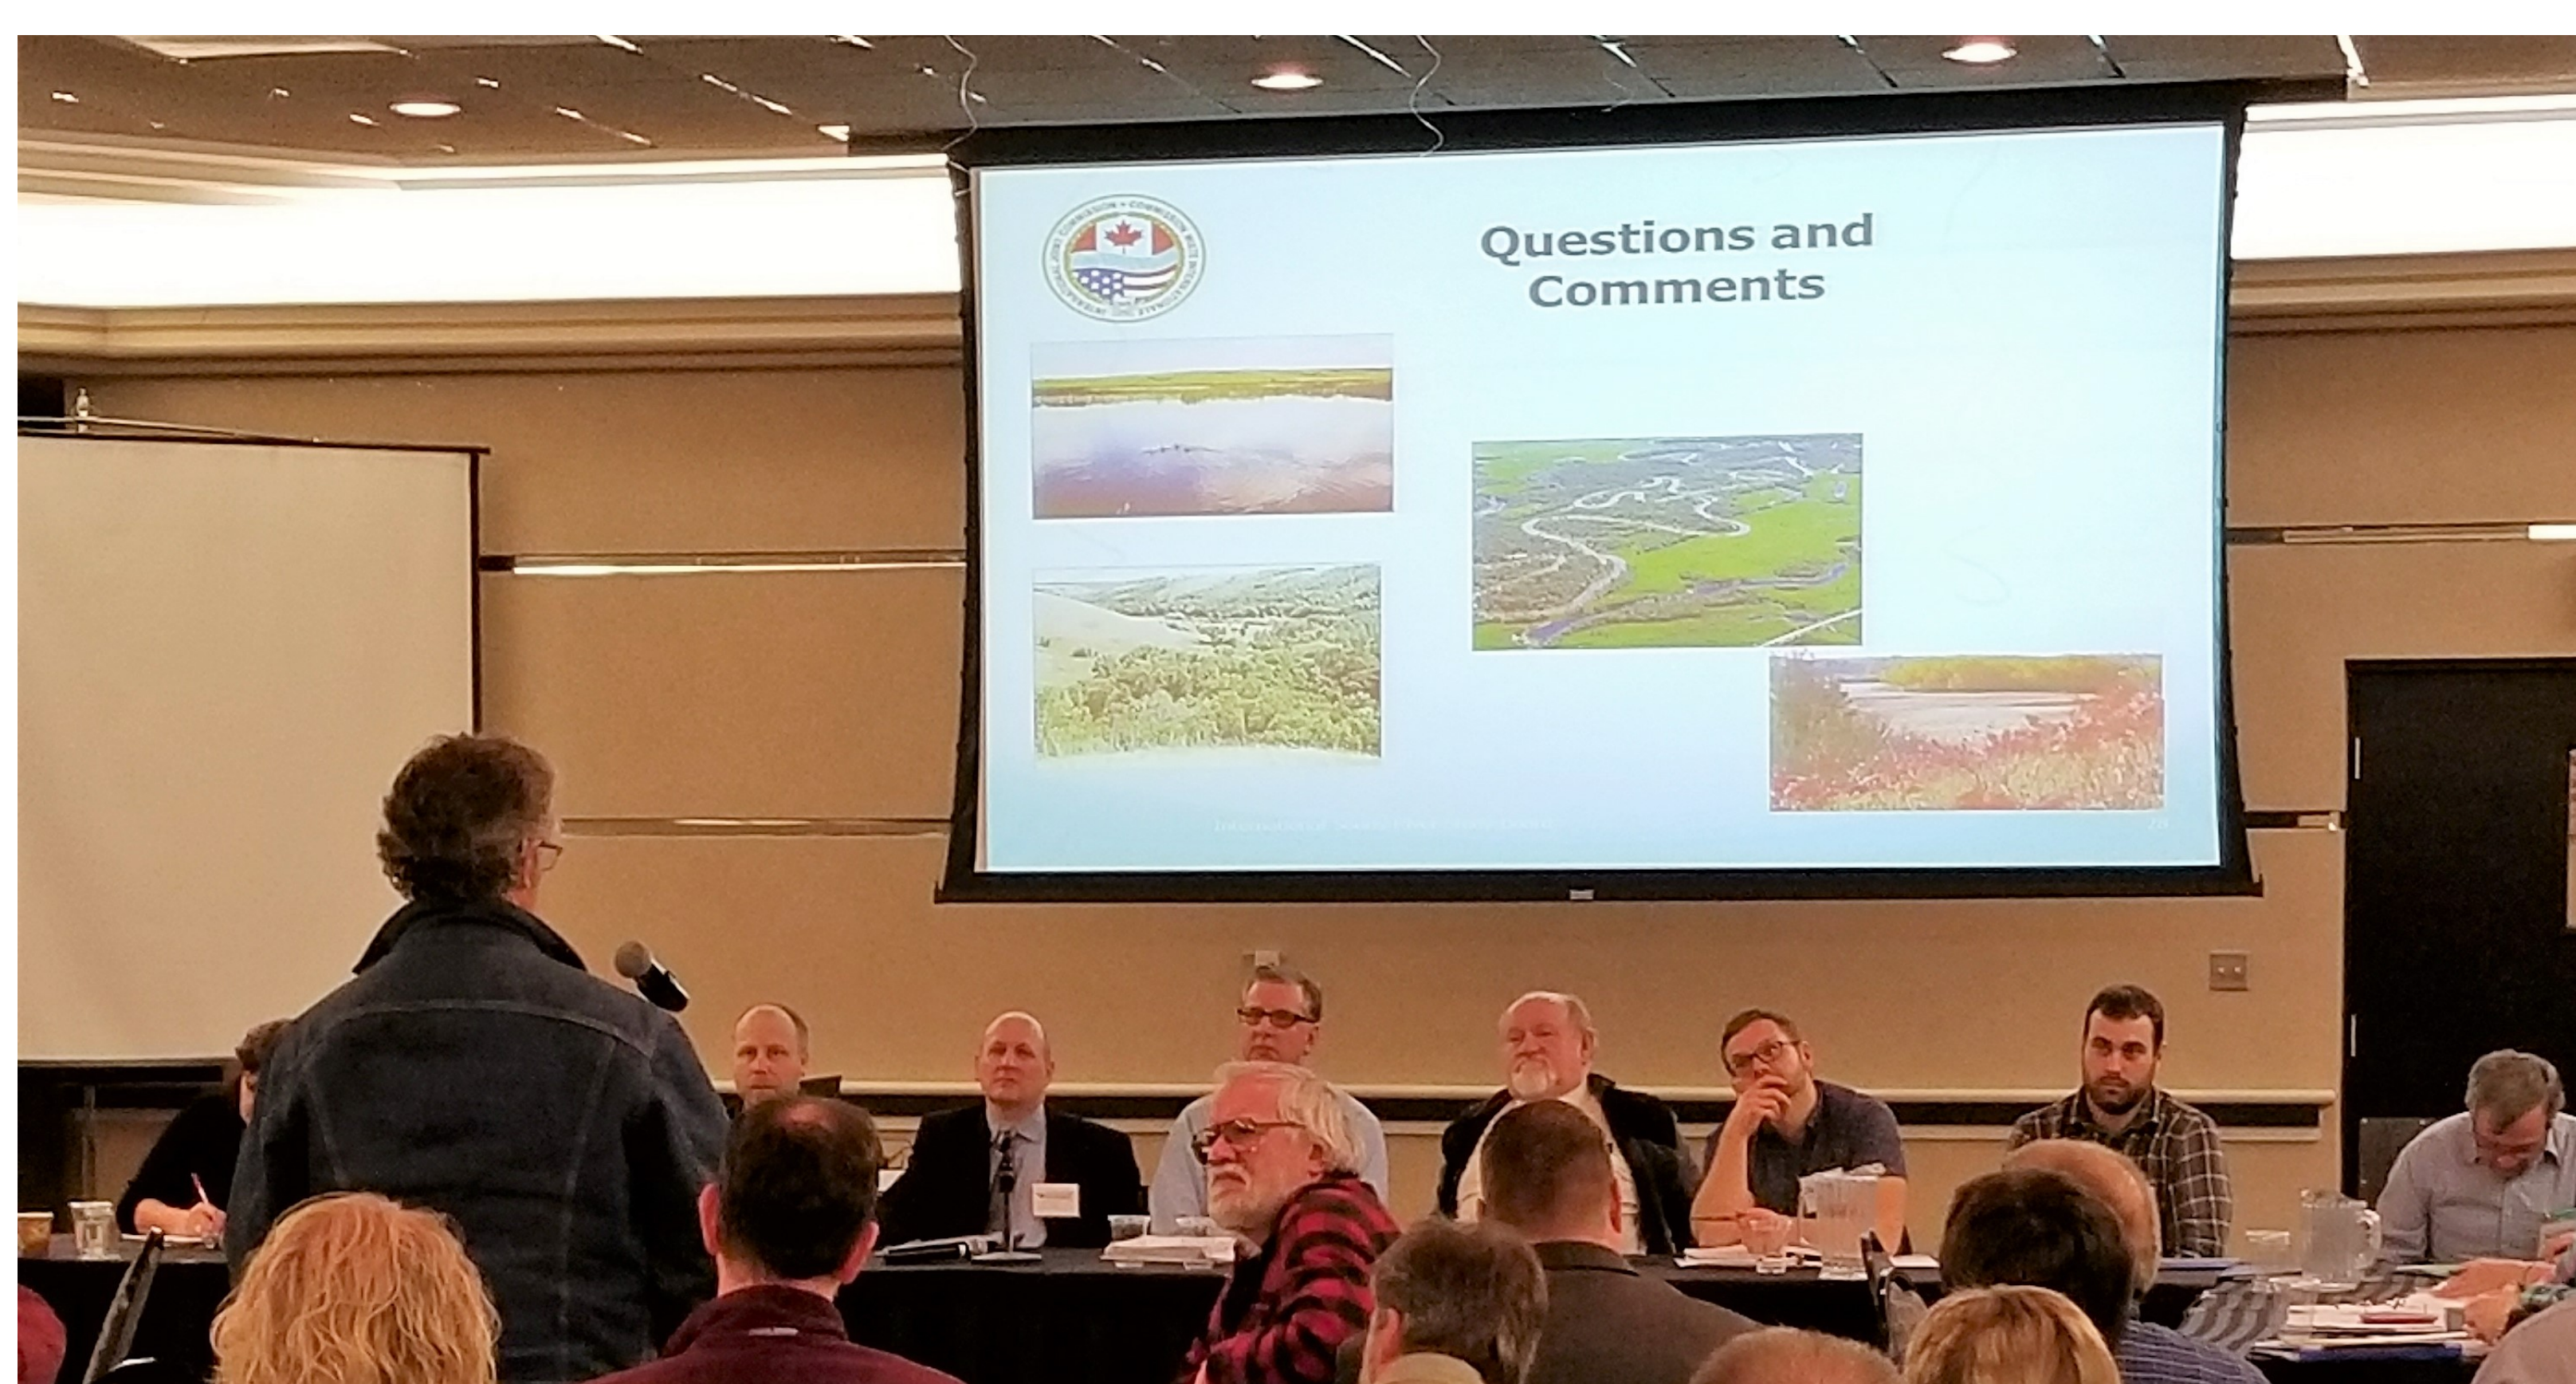

Submitted to the International Joint Commission – November 2017

Posted for public comment February 12-March 12, 2018

View the comments at www.participateijc.org/sourisriver

Public Meeting on the draft Work Plan

Minot, North Dakota – February 20, 2018

Get involved

Didn't have a chance to comment? Don't worry.

The Study Board actively encourages public participation and input throughout the study.

Here's how to stay connected:

Visit

Subscribe

Visit us online at ijc.org/en_/isrsb and subscribe to Study updates

Attend the next public meeting in Estevan, Saskatchewan, on June 25

Have a question or comment? Contact us:

sourisriverstudy@ottawa.ijc.org

Follow us

Follow the IJC on social media

